

Diagramming Practice - Prepositional Phrases and Predicate Words

DIRECTIONS: Answer the following questions with short answers, not drawings. Use your descriptive words.

1. What type of line is used to show a modifier?
2. How do you diagram a simple sentence?

DIRECTIONS: Diagram the following sentences using the correct format. You will see some compound subjects and verbs, prepositional phrases, and predicate adjectives and nominatives.

1. Mary D. Cat yowls and hisses.
2. Jimmy Badboy smirked and sneered.

3. Birds fly south in the winter months.
4. Hank and Drover sleep for hours.

5. I live in the state of Texas.
6. Mr. Partin is my principal.

7. Did you go to the mall?
8. Corndogs with mustard taste delicious!

9. Historical novels are fun.

10. The blue pen leaks.

11. Is he truly unhappy?

12. London and Paris are cities in Texas.

13. Nelly Bly wrote for the newspaper.

14. They leave tomorrow at noon.

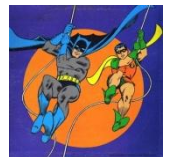

15. Greedy green monsters are hilarious!

16. Yogi and Boo Boo are cartoon bears.

17. Clark Kent is Superman.

18. Danny and Vanessa are alien hunters.

19. Batman and Robin are a crime-fighting duo.

20. The masked man with the moustache is my long-lost father.

