

A Caboodle of Words Chapters 1-11(Section 1)

Word	Part of Speech	Context Clue	Definition
1. peculiar ch. 1, p. 2	adj.	"...Phoebe Winterbottom, a girl...who had a powerful imagination and who would have many peculiar things happen to her."
2. walloping ch. 2, p. 6	adj.	"...the journey took on an alarming, expanding need to hurry that was like a walloping great thundercloud assembling around me."
3. ornery ch. 3, p. 10	adj.	"I was not sweet that day. I was being particularly ornery ."
4. gnarled ch. 4, p. 18	adj.	"A thick, gnarled cane with a handle carved in the shape of a cobra's head lay across her knees."
5. cadaver ch. 4, p. 22	Noun	"You know what cadaver means?" "It means dead body."
6. dismantled ch. 5, p. 28	Verb adj.	"The 'car-bust-erator' lay dismantled on the ground. Various other pieces of the woman's engine were scattered here and there."
7. divulge ch. 6, p. 29	verb	"I explained that just as Phoebe was going to divulge the purely awful thing that had happened to Mr. Cadaver..."
8. cholesterol ch. 6, p. 30	noun	"They didn't eat meat, and they didn't use butter. They were very much concerned with cholesterol ."
9. pandemonium ch. 9, p. 46	noun	"It was complete pandemonium at the Finneys'." "There were footballs and basketballs lying all over the place, and boys sliding down the banister and leaping over tables and talking..."
10. shrapnel ch. 10, p. 54	Pl. noun	"I'm a veteran. See this leg? Shrapnel from German guns."
11. accumulated ch. 11, p. 62	verb	"I thought it was going to be only me and Phoebe and Mary Lou going, but by the time we left the house, we had accumulated Tommy and Dougie as well."
12. rummaging ch. 11, p. 63	verb	"I looked over to where Ben was standing, but he and Mary Lou were busy rummaging around in the chocolate bars."
13. flinch ch. 11, p. 65,	verb	"You flinch every time someone touches you."	